Minority Government Bonus?

Members of Parliament from all parties have agreed to let outsiders determine the boundaries of constituencies, being redrafted in a general redistribution of seats to conform with population changes.

It may be that-the mere passing of time is bringing some appreciation of fair play and common sense to bear on what in the past was invariably an occasion for flagrant political manipulation.

Or it may be that here we are enjoying one of the free benefits of minority government. Since no party can, of itself, command a majority of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the control of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the world of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the world of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the world of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the world of the Bions, it follows that each party is at the beautiful that the beautif

A Tribute to Past Service

A ITIDUIE tO PAST SOFTICE
Jack Ellis will be Belleville's next mayor, the first chief magistrate elected for a two-year term.
To him go congratulations. Bits convincing victory, over such a capable opponent as Jack Ireland, is clear-out proof that the city's voters consider that he has served them faithfully and will during the past five years, in his capacity as alderman.

To Jack Ireland, in defeat, should go the thanks of the clittens for his work as alderman, coupled with hopes that he will not drop out of municipal life, but, will again ofter his valued services. One of the affermatts of this mayorally contest, as of so many here and in other centres where men of experience and integrity seek the same seat, must be regret that there is not some method of preventing this wastage, which sees able men relegated to the sidelines. Unlike federal sole men relegated to the stocking. Untiler feedings and provincial politics, municipal elections only rarely produce clear cleavages in policy between the candidates. The defeat of an aspirant for the mayor's chair does not, therefore, mean that the voters are out of sympathy with his riews on municipal affairs, but merely that they thought a chair can easily the species when the product of t rival candidate more capable.

Heading the aldermanic poll was Ald. Ben ke. Just one vote behind was ex-alderman Donald Whalen whose vote appears to reflect the voters' reaction to his stress on the desirability of avoiding any increase in taxes Mr Wholen's point that the tripling of assessment figures could open the way to an increased levy, because the mill rate will be greatly reduced from that in recent years, was well taken. There is indeed a danger that a council, hard pressed to find the money for all requested expenditures, may be less reluctant to increase the tax levy than would have been the case under the old, lower assessment, with its resultant high mill rate.

Only two of the seven aldermen whose terms expired at the end of this year sought re-election to these posts. It is a compliment to Ald. Ben Corke that the topped the poil. The other alderman seeking re-election, Joseph Raycroft, came fourth, behind another ex-alderman, William Javash. Three others were elected for two-press terms. Two were new-comers, Donald Jose and Donald C. Williams, and the third an ex-alderman, George Brown. The 1964 council will thus be a judicious mixture of experienced men and three newcomers.

True, he proved a master of rategy and the near in the high hands but a deugh-ting star you a doller he won't be picked on any all-ray spend.

And according to reports from the blue side of the tites this would not be the opportune time for the Tigers' is lineman Angelo Mosca, to offer himself as a candi-e for the majoralty of Vancouver.

Out yonder where the blue of the morning follows the gold of the night before, they're calling hig Angie everything from a graduate from a college of applied mayhem to a model for the hangman's noose.

It was Mosca's terrifie bone-crunching body-spread o Willie Fleming, one of the country's most brilliant half backs and the cope of the Lions' offence, that sent the starry backfielder out of the game_just before half-time

Vancouver fans, cut to the quick by the razor-edge blade of disappointment in defeat, hurled sharp verbal barbs of criticism at the big Hamilton lineman. They claim he deliberately hurled this huge frame at the pres-trate Fleming after he had been tackled by Joe Zager-

Had Fleming been one of the eastern experts who called Tommy Brown over him as the lineman of the year, perhaps Mosca's action in this respect would have been describation.

Mean's description of the play was: "Wille was running along the adeline and Joe Zuger tacked him. He was still moving and the whittle hash's blown. It has we still moving and the whittle hash's blown. It has well as the play to the chart willness and the play to the chart willness willness and hash. That's all there was to it."

If that's all there is to it, give me a good old-hioned World War Two tank battle or a muscle eaching game of chess or checkers.

But it is all over now with the exception, as was men-sed of the post-mortens. These are good for the long ter nights, the warm balmy spring evenings and on the start of the new season.

By this time everything that wasn't nailed down is k in place in the Vancouver holstelries, mostelries and rever the football fanatics gathered to celebrate.

Much Too Naive

A Canadian, Ronald Patrick Lippert, has been convicted of amuggling explosives into He has been sentenced to 30 years in

The sentence is not excessive, considering the nature of the alleged crime. Smuggled explosives could bring death to citizens of a Smuggled nation with which Canada is not at war

Nevertheless, and quite properly, Canadian authorities have interested themselves in Lippert's case. Their concern is to do everything possible to make certain that Lippert is fairly

This has resulted in various aspecta-of the case drawing comment from members of Parlia-

H. W. Herridge, New Democratic member for Kootenay West, asked Hon. Paul Martin, Canadian Minister for External Affairs, about Havana reports that Lippert had confessed he was acting as an agent for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency. If Lippert was a CIA agent Mr. Her-ridge argued, Canada should protest to the U.S. about one of its organizations using a Canadian for a hostile act against Cuba.

This seems to be drawing a rather long bow. It is difficult to suggest what moral rights Canada has to demand that other countries refrain from using its nationals for acts which Canada deems repugnant. Any such demand it would seem, would be more logically addressed to the Canadians involved than to the foreign country employing them. Espionage being what it is, agencies like the CIA are not likely to be overly particular about the nationality of the people they use. Any protest to the U.S., besides being futile, would appear to be unhapply naive.

But on one point Mr. Herridge is right, Canada should endeavor to ascertain whether Lippert was, indeed, acting for the CIA. If he was, his acceptance of such employment by a foreign power could reasonably be considered to deprive him of the privileges of Canadian citizenship. The logical course for Canada would not be to protest to the U.S., but to abandon all intervention on Lippert's behalf. In Trouble

Information Denied

The other day Douglas Fisher attempted to learn whether the Royal Canadian Mounted Police supplies a list of suspected communistront organizations, unios and publications in Canada to "Alert Service." a voluntary information agency in Toronto.

His motion for information was talked out in the Commons

Donald S. MacDonald, parliamentary secre-tary to Justice Minister Chevrier, and Gordon Aiken, Progressive Conservative member for Parry Sound, both argued that the RCMP should be required to make such information public.

The most serious trouble soul canadian agriculture is distrition. Earlies of the modifications in June 12 and 12 We are prepared to accept the contention that, in dealing with communists and other subversive organizations or individuals, the Mounties are entitled to enjoy the benefits of

It does seem, though, that it is carrying this requirement to extreme to deny Mr. Fisher an answer to this question.

If the RCMF is not supplying information to "Alert Service," its difficult to suggest how a denial of such a procedure could possibly hamper the Mountles in their work.

If, on the other hand, such information is supplied, those receiving it are well aware of the fact, while Mr. Fisher and other members of Parliament are denied the knowledge.

Parliament are denied the knowledge.

We should have thought that there was only a possible answer which could have protected the Mounties—a swift and emphatic denial.

Such a denial could do the Mounties no harm, if true. If the Mounties are not in a position to truthfully deny such a link, the soder this is known to our members of Parliament the better. The spectacle of the RCMP ment the better. The spectacle of the RCMP supplying self-appointed guardians of our institutions, with information which they consider it was to deny the elected representatives of the people is not one which will appeal to any person with a proper regard for the principles on which our system is founded.

People are terribly sensitive to the charge that they are not sufficiently anti-communist. The right wing has had an influence. . . By far the greatest part of the American press is intimidated.—George F. Kennan, former U.S. ambassador to Russia and Yugostavia.

Sino-Soviet Hostility

At the reep root of Sino-loviet hostlity, I suppose is the simple fact of the two ountries being at such vastly different stages in their nat-onal development.

In Russia communism has now got to the point where it can produce the material good required and has irrevocably moulded the whole edifice of society.

But there remain problems of modera life-problems created by the success of Communist construction and progress—which Marx, Engels and Lenial did not envisage and for which solutions have to be sought de nove, either by pure home-spun thought or by shopping around the international

French at the Movies

By H. B. Natals in a letter to the Editor of the Otlawa Citizen Last week, as I happened to be in a small town on the Que-bec aide. I wandered into the local movie theatre. When the Utle and credits flashed on the screen, I realized that it was an English movie with French-speaking lines dub-"Aw, it's in French," said a oung lady behind me, "and

"Don't worry. I'll translate it for you, honey," whispered a masculine voice. "I've been taking those night classes in French, and you'll be surprised at how much "re learnt." Dairying

By this time I was beginning to feel like a United Nationa delegate with a short circuit in his simulianeous translater.

But I must confess, I am reality a coward at heart, for when I saw the title of the second feature. Le Vampire Adolescent, I picked up my six and slunk out as unobtrustively as possible.

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

ig Jim Brown, the buildozing backfielder of the Cleve Browns, had a field day for himself on Sunday. He shuffled the St. Louis Cards with a hewlidering display of rushing that sent the National Football League inksters rushing for record books with pens at

The big 223-pound fullback whose arms dangle at sides like the pendulum of a grandfather's clock the trots back to the huddle broke his own "rush-mark" and every yard he gains from here in will be

It is no secret that there was some kind of dissension in the Browns' ranks last year before the upper-crust of the club decided to part with the services of the club's originator, Paul Brown.

Brown, Paul that is, was discharged last January, He had been the target of criticism from Jim and other Browns' players for his cold and stubborn ways.

Paul Brown called almost all the offensive plays team, sending in the decision by shuttling players. r the quarterback, Frank Ryan, calls the plays.

The new Browns' coach, Blanton Collier, calls some plays, says Brown. "The spotter on the roof calls some I even call them myself some of the time."

"I used to be silent," the big fullback told reporters.
"Where I couldn't say anything before, now I'm helping to make new suggestions. It's made a new man out of me."

"It's nice," he said, "to have a coach who will sit and listen to ideas. The team has a new spirit and a new attitude."

Jim has a wholesome respect for Sam Huff, the New York Giants' line buildozer. "Plenty of times I looked at my ankles and saw Sam's number 70 there."

"There's a thin line between dirty football and hrad football," he pays... "Sam's rough all right. But I've been playing him now for seven years and we've had two scrape. That's not bad. There are a couple of Steelers I could blast, but maybe they don't know any.

From what I have seen of Jim Brown's play there is nothing in his action to deliberately hurt or "buildons" an opposing player. He tries to avoid tacklers, rather than sweep them out of his way through the sheer power of his powerful body and drive.

Defendency may be preparedly site section when Brown as much as blish his proposed, but the properties of the first has been supported by the properties of the first has been defendence. Or else Frank Ryan spins clever fittle masses to soon receivors."

It should be the National Football League classic of year if and when the Browns class with the New & Giants for the championahip.

There will be the teamwork and the individual are of Jim Brown on one side, and the "Awesome F nd Y. A. Tittle on the oth

64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

Any car this luxurious ought to have its price examined!

Here are looks, luxury and comfort you'd expect to set you back plenty - if they came from anybody but Chevrolet.

Fresh-minted styling with clean uncluttered lines that give the 64 Jetsmooth Chevrolet its feeling of new length and lowness.

Rich new interiors with supple fabrics (sink your hand into the new vinyl upholstery of the new Impala Super Sport Series, for instance, and ask yourself if you've ever felt softer seat covering).

Here are the niceties of Body-by-Fisher craftsmanship such as you'll find on some of the most expensive cars around. And stylish touches like the vinyl-clad roof* you can order on the Sport Coupes.

Door-to-door carpeting and foam-cushioned front and rear seats are standard now in all models, including the modestly priced Biscaynes.

And there's a wealth of power to pick from. Engines from a peppery 140-hp 6 to a 425-hp V8°. Transmissions that are refined for smoother, more silent operation. Fourteen power teams in all.

Then, with all of that going for you, you've got the '64 Jetsmooth ride at work to cushion you from road noise and vibration such as few other cars can at any price.

Been promising yourself luxury like this someday? Your someday is here, as your Chevrolet dealer will gladly show you.

See five entirely different lines of cars at your Chevrolet Showroom—CHEVROLET, CHEVELLE, CHEVY II, CORVAIR & CORVETTE

Be sure to see Bonanza on the CBC-TV network each Sunday. Check your local listing for channel and time. TRUDEAU MOTORS

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE UNPREPARED

when new Dominion Royal $ 1.95 Winter Tires are as low as Now...today...is the time to buy Dominion Royal Winter Tires before the snow piles deep. Why Dominions? 'Cause Dominions make tracks where other tires fear to tread. Thousands of thick angled cleats bite wide and deep...in the deepest snow. They're best by test.

Dominion Royal Winter Tires run smoothly and quietly on the open road because of exclusive continuous rib design ... adding new comfort and pleasure to winter driving. Don't wait...Buy now, prices are lower than ever before. See your Dominion Tire Store or Dominion Royal Tire Dealer today.

The fresh eggs aren't on the bottom ma'am

We know it! And you know it! Eggs depend on freshness for their good flavor. At Rite-Way Foods you never have to deal from the bottom of our dairy case to get the freshest eggs. From the time our eggs are gathered in the hatch ... washed ... refrigerated and runbed to our dairy department, it's a matter of only 24 to 88 hours. (And we ex-estock every day with a fresh supply). Same story for milk and just about everything else in our dairy department. So, take from the bottom, if you must ... but don't be afraid to take from the top.

GRADE "A" LARGE

(With every $5.00 purchase you are entitled to 1 dozen grade "A" large eggs at the low price above.)

City Hall Mix-Up

If George Brown is browned off, Douglasoyle boiling and Eugene Harrison harried, we not blame them.

not be the latest unfortunate victims the machine age.

Election night Mr. Boyle appeared to have won a two-year term as alderman, Mr. Harrison to have been elected for one year and Mr. Brown to have just failed to capture a seat.

Tuesday morning City Hall reported that a check had revealed a three-way shuffle. Mr. Frown's total was 500 votes greater than first announced and he was in for a two-year term, dropping Mr. Boyle to eighth and a one-year term and leaving Mr. Harrison out in the cold.

Necessary changes, not without some sweat and tears, were made in news story and edi-torial by The Ontario Intelligencer staff. Then, just after we had gone to press, came word from the City Hall that there might have been another "machine error," perhaps dropping Mr. Brown right out of the picture, restoring a two-year term to Mr. Boyle and resurrecting Mr. Harrison from the discard to resurrecting Mr. Harrison from the discard to a one-year stint as alderman. In the event, this proved to be the case. Just what we consider should be done with the errant adding machine is, we fear, unprint-able but it is just possible that, in private con-versations, Mr. Brown, or Mr. Boyle or Mr. Har-rison might be able to advance a helpful sug-

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

Cassing Clay, the Dogerest Daniel of Louisville, appeared on a television show the other night without of all people-fir. Libersee, resplendent in a gilliaring beaded disagre jackst, candelabra and all the triumings except "Brother George."

The "Louisville Lip" spouted his now almost famous ce "pome" in which "the crowd did not dream they laid in their money. That they'd see a total sclipse of the no."

The Ciay corn "pomes" are far from being things poctic beauty-but the metive behind them is the iliding of the biggest gate in the history of heavy-tight champleasthy fights. And from this point of rw, they seem headed for success.

But you produce something you think is new and the slives, record books and old prints will prove once again there is nothing new under the sun.

old again mare is nothing over however the re-BHI (Ottawa Journal) Westwick dug up a yellowed clipping dated 1857 which states that at that time Gen-tleman Jim Corbett and 806 Filtsimmons were scheduled to meet for the heavyweight title. Corbett, the clipping any, turned up in Philadelphia one might at the Quaen's Helel either owned or managed by Pittinian-

The meeting between the pair proved a coroucopia of copy for the sports writers of the day. It developed a mild scrap in which Carboti insisted he intended to merely be playful and Fitsimmens had resented being allied a cur and having his nose tweaked.

Following is the clipping account of the clash as tol-

"The whole trouble started about two weeks ago in New York, when I reduced to ride a bloyche match with Fitzimmens for the benefit of the lee fund. When I am going to fight a man I want to be aggressive; I want to be an outs with him, see. I had publicly stated I intended to pull Fitzimmonar nose next time I met him, but I want to any that I did not know that he was at the-effects."

When I went there last night the first I knew of him being there was when I turned around and aw him standing the the region of the region of the region of the region what do you want at that register, you know you cannot writing than it and to him. RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

Perhaps the recent tour of the Windsor Buildogs had something to do with it but European hockey men are voicing the opinion the world champion Russians will repeat again at the 1964 Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria.

With the Canadian Olympic squad yet an unknown untity as far as international competition is concerned, overseas experts, apart from the Soviet selection, have not predicted the complete standing of the "Big Four" at

A Russian observer who picks the home country iteam to take the Olympics heckey honors says that Sweders, Cucchoslovakia and Canada will be among the top four and feels the American team, which he says, is stronger than last year, will have something to say about the exramble for top honors.

Anatol Tarasov, well known Russian national coach ofe an article in a Czechoslovakian magazine before saw 1 of his teams kicked our "Dogs" around. Tarasov 5 here with the Soviet squad that toured Canada last ur and wrote his impressions of Canadian hockey and "It would appear," he wrote, "that by being active in various sports our players would be superior (in reaction), yet the Canadins are faster with their hoe-key sticks. Especially in difficult situations they are masters; they are able to react and switch quickly from one technical spect is another.

During his tour, Taratov said, "we had the good fertune to see the best professional players of the world, the six tenus of the highest professional league. I fully acknowledge the ability and high standards of Canadian hockey and I would like to express he what way the Canadians see stronger, and also weaker than we are."

He said the Canadian professional is a personality tice income. His pay is high. But he plays 70-90 ga cason, a skilled amateur possibly 15 games fewer.

The Russians, Tarasov points out, play about 37 passes a seeson and in 10 or 15 of them do not have to most themselves became they are almost certain winers. "From this we can exhibit the Canadians are benginer, physically stronger and more enduring."

He admits that Canadians have an edge in skating, ugh he feels that the Russians can start faster than Co

"As far as strength goes," said Tarasov, as the sying goes: "The Almighty did not cheat the Canadiana." rely only strong and able opponents meet such players fithout feeding sorry for themselves."

Regarding physical assets the Soviet coach finds he best judge a player in three ways; by observing him a game, by checking his performance in other athletics game, by checkin by medical check.

However, Tarasov igals that Canadian hockey has more or less reached its peak and cannot develop qual-lities much beyond the present point. This can be food for argument on this aide of the pond.

He is of the opinion that Canadians hold a big edge in that they start to play hockey at the age of six or seven. This, apparently, is something the Russians, and in all likelihood, other European teams will be inaugurating in the

He said they had some 350,000 registered players last winter and expect to reach the 500,000 mark within two years and the two million figure within the next ten years.

To Russians like other cross-the-pend teams, es-pecially those from Sweden and Cucchesiovskia are im-proving starding and as one Creck efficial told me back in 1989, the time may not be too far away when Curpopans teams with as also compact with the pre-feated and type as Canadians know it.

Much Saap been said and written in the past on the ference in European and our code of rules and regu-

The difference has often been the cause of hard feelings on the ice, and as is well known, the caustic criticism of European sports journalists.

This column has always advocated an internation-alization of rules and while they're at it a rigid training and a qualifying test for European officials before they are allowed to "work" an international contest.

World Moving to Fast?

Those who maintain that the world is moving too fast will find excellent ammunition in support of their contention in accounts of a ntary committee's consideration of the decision of Trans-Canada Air Lines to purchase

Douglas DC-9 medium-range jets.

This plane is still on the drawing board. In one sense, therefore, TCA is buying a pig in a poke. But TCA president Gordon R. McGregor said it would be almost disastrous for an airline to wait until a plane was built before deciding whether to buy it. Obsolescence would already have set in.

ent provides striking emphasis on -- The comment provises straing emphasis on the great and rapid development which the past two decades have seen in the airpiane. Nor is the end in sight. The engineers appear able to design ever faster and ever bigger planes, which greatly accelerate the speed of air travel—or would it somebody could devise a way to prevent the time required getting to and from the airport from representing an ever-increasing proportion of total journey time.

the time required getting to and from the airport of the price of the many cases a model has gone out of production before there is complete evidence as to its worth. It is only several years later that less well-heeled citizens, who habitually satisfy their need for transportation in the used car market, establish some make and model as a favorite. Then the Then the 1954 Whoofer or the 1957 Zing gains recognition as a car that really stands up, keeping repair costs to a minimum.

Much the same thing happens with airplanes Much the same thing happens with airpianes on the milk runs in poorer parts of the globe. The old tri-motor Fords ran for years after they had disappeared in the land of their origin. Another workhorse of the sir, the DC-3, a Douglas plane, iz still a favorice of the poorer airlines.

Not Censorship

Not Censorship
The trustees appointed by the Federal Government to supervise five Canadian maritime unions have decided to impose encourably upon all publications of these unions.

Censorably is indefensible. But the trustees' decision is right and proper. The apparent paradox arises from a simple cause—the trustees' control over these publications is not, in any proper sense of the word, emanorship.

The trustees were appointed to supervise the first trustees were appointed to supervise the publication of periodiceloids reflect the publication of periodiceloids reflect the politics of the unions as determined by the trustees. This is no more censorably than is the control which every publisher exercises over the material he produces. Consonably is the sexercise of control ices. Clairtone creates tubeless system to banish heat deterioration. Results: an astonishing

The Achilles heel of the stereo set has always been its glowing tubes. They heat up, gradually cook out the circuits, crystallize the solder—and eventually burn

Clairtone's solution is simple and dramatic. Eliminate the tubes, Old glass radio tubes are replaced by a modern completely solid state system, as reliable as the components used in missile control systems and electronic computers. In Clairtone sets there are no glowing fila-ments. No heat deterioration. Result: Clairtone now guarantees all solid state parts for an astonishing five

Another important advantage: old-fashloned radio tubes gradually weaken as time passes; the quality of sound deteriorates—the set slowly drifts into senility.

Clairtone's solid state system leads a Peter Pan existence: it stays at youthful efficiency through the Clairtone's tubeless system also gives instantan-eous sound—eliminates that thresome warm-up period. And you no longer have to fiddle with the controls to compensate for tubes getting hot and changing char-

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

Tonight in Atlantic City, Carmine Thetit squares off with world middleweight champion Dick Tiger in an effort to wreat the titular bauble from the kinky noggin of the Nigerian top-notcher.

Regardless of what those demmed Tiger Cats did to my B.C. Lions, I'll pick a Tiger this time. I don't believe Carmine will be around for the final round. Then again neither were the Lions.

Mr. Tiletti is the greal name of the alley brawler who fights under the tab of Joey Glardelle. Mr. Tiletti's troubles started with a piece of hokum that got him into the army during the war. He was only 15 and wanted to fight as a boddy plached the hapdismal cer-lificate of a relative and Caranho became known as one

Today the real Joe Giardelle, if he is not dead, probably sits back and ealoys seeing his naneanke is ring action. The pair has never laid eyes on each other. Giardello is a stocky punch-scarred veteran of the ring He has surprisingly small hands for one who has battered hundreds of theses in and out of the ring.

"I don't feel old," said the veteran professional ganeck. "I never took a had besting. I watched self pretty close. In the ring," he added rather

Out of the army is 1948 the fellow named Joey Giar-lello started fighting in the ring. He won eighteen bouts and to use causing the experts to take a second look at his rugged, occly newcomer. After he look this first bout se won seven straight and the big boys started to think of

He talked about a fight with champion Youy Zal but it never came off. They talked fights with Bob Olsen' and Sugar Ray Robinson. These, too, ended i mere talk.

In 1925 Josy found himself in jall after he had slugged a parking let attendant. It sobered him seriously—but the onus was on him perhaps a trifle unfairly. He was dealed a licence to fight in New York Siste because his mattgement had, according to the state commission, "undetrable associates."

After 15 years and 118 fights, Giardello says he is broke but has partially paid for property in Cherry Hill, NJ, across from the Garden State race track. He has three small sons who use their rightful name of Tiletti. Joey has an inaide job as "executive director of public relations" for a Florids; real estate development he has sever seen.

Federal Govt. May Ask Parliament to Proclaim 'O Canada' National Anthem

The music for O Canada was composed in 1880 by Calina La-yallee and the original French words, still used today, were written by Sir Adolphe Routhier,

The music was first performed in English Cansda in 1901 and six years later Dr. T. B. Richardson of Toronto wrote the first English version. His adaptation is closer to the original French than the version.

Routhier version: O Canada! Terre de nos

Another Scrap of Paper Kaiser Wilhelm's ghost must be happy to

It has just been joined by a new battalion of scrap-paper makers.

And all over Europe there must be such turning in the graves as has not been seen since Munich. The Wespons and Aviation Armament Corporation of Cuxhaven, West Germany, has just

eld its first public demonstration of its wares. It has fired four rockets. In order to avoid "complications" with the West German Government, the rockets were ribed as meant for scientific use alone. But the firm openly states that it offers adaptations capable of military use, these adaptations being sale abroad, of course. In the cities of the dead, those who were ared that Germany would be deprived of the right to make offensive weapons may not grasp the vital difference between a mere promise, like this, and a solemn treaty, such as Kaiser Bill tore up when he marched through Belgium.

And, anyway, surely there is ample preced-Look at the way the Krupp empire was

Upper Bridge Congestion

Thursday a counter was checking on the south-bound flow of traffic on North Front St.

There have been protests about traffic tie-ups at the intersection of North Front and Moira

One of our friends, who occasionally trots into the editorial sanctum with information and ideas, just at the psychological moment when the snoozing muse needs a jog, has presented us with his version of a solution.

The trouble, says Charles Sweetman, lies in the fact that north-bound traffic on the Upper Bridge gets a green light some seconds before south-bound traffic is given the go-ahead signal. In this interval, east-bound traffic on Moira turns right onto the bridge, jamming it full, so that when south-bound traffic on North Front Street can legally proceed there is no place to

To eliminate the delayed-green for south-bound traffic would just create another problem, making it difficult for north-bound traffic to m left onto Wesp Moira.

The solution, says Mr. Sweetman, would appear to be to keep the "delayed green" but to prohibit cars on Moira Street from turning right onto the bridge on a red light. That would keep the bridge clear for south-bound traffic on North Front, when it was free to Proceed.

Was This Calculated?

Nikita Khrushchev, alone among the orld's leading statesmen of the day, has equired a reputation for "shooting off his botth" upon occasion. Whether these indisacquired a regutation for "shooting off his mouth" upon occasion. Whether these indiscretions are the result of an ebullent temperament or have their fountainhead in his well-known liking for a spot of two-fisted drinking, may be a matter for speculation. One sometimes wonders, though, whether all these indiscretions are retaily indiscrete—whether Kirushicher does not sometimes find it convenient to appear to be biruting out, of the spur of this propeared long beforehand. Be has carefully prepared long beforehand. We include the spur of the second of the spur of the second of the sec prepared long beforehand.

For instance why-fild Mr. K, when addressing the Communities Party Central Committee and uring the boosting of production of food-staffs through the increased use of fertilizers, contrast his proposed policy with that followed by Stalin? Was this another case of saying the first thing that came into his head? Or was it a planned statement, the likely impact of which he had studied in advance? He is reported to have curtailed his drinking for health reasons.

He said Stalin had deliberately sold grain abroad while people in Russia went hungry. If this remark was not an unplanned reference to Stalin, then we must consider what Khrush-chev hoped to achieve by making it. It added little to his plea for increased agricultural production. But it could have important implica-tions in the internecine strife between different isions in the intermedine strife between different segments of the communist movement. Incidentally, Khruntchew's version of Stalin's conduct was even harsher than that day, vanced by many of communism's foes. It seems likely that Mr. K was referring in part, to the treatment of the Ukrainians, whose wheat was taken from them and, who were left to starve when they resisted the farm collectivation. ogram early in Stalin's regime. Even some the most bitter critics of Stalin's policy at of the most bitter critics of Stalkin's policy at that time have considered that the expropriated wheat was used to feed the communiar-upport-ing consors is indepartial cities. They believed stairs and choose to punish the farmers who, according to communiast stories, had deliberately sabotaged the crops. Now Khrushichev, in ef-fect, any three was enough wheat for everybody in Russia, but Stalin exported some of it. This Stalinists in the ranks of world communiar. Stalinists in the ranks of world communism.

A Difficult Pose

Mrs. Claire Shewring appeared in tights and a black sweater at the service in St. Phillip's Anglican Church, Norbury, England, last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Shewring said: "I sin in selling the beauty God gave me. Not in some aleasy flat . . . that would be too horrible. I sell before the cameras of commerce."

before the cameras of commerce."

If it has for a woman to appear in tights before the cameras of commerce, the sin must lie in the purpose, which is to sulf-goods. If can hardly lie in the act of appearing in tights, because Mrs. Shewring appeared in tights in church, for the purpose of illustrating the vicar's sermon. The only difference between the starful act which the vicar denounced and the church appearance which he detended against the Hause of God!" was in the purpose for which it was done. it was done.

We are not disposed to quarret with this basic interpretation—it does seem to us that it is very often impossible to judge whether an act is good or evil until one knows the purpose behind it.

ever, leaves the vicar, Rev. Vernon This, however, leaves the vicar. Rev. Vernon Mitchell, with the necessity of explaining why advertising is evil. He cannot fall back on the defence that it is not advertising which is evil, but the use of sex in advertising, because that would have as a corollary the admission that, while sermons like advertising, are good, the use of sex to illustrate them is evil, as in advertising the control of the contr tising. And the ejected parshioner who pro-tested its use would be vindicated.

The vicar is a former advertising executive. Perhaps, his blahop wishes Mr. Mitchell was still living in sin.

The society which creates scientists by diminishing the ranks of its philosophers may in the end have little need for either. — Crawford H. Creenewalt, American industrialist.

The happiest is he who suffers least; the said, n most miserable is he who suffers least; the more sorrow than joy—bits is the lot of all of us—Jean Jacques Rousseau.

FACTORY SERVICE?

Factory service means that your appliances are serviced by iclans who are experts in their respective fields whether it be eration, laundry equipment, ranges, televisions, stereos, etc.

These servicemes are trained by the manufacturers after their taken been thoroughly investigated. They must pass rigid qualtions to meet the high standards set by brand name manufaces before they are authorized to be actiony service centre in incernational services of the services

It is the Policy of the BAD BOY NOT to have one man servicing all phases of appliances and electronic repair and who is generally known as a "lackford.11-rade". Instead BAD BOY-retains the services of manufacturer's personally selected authorized service technicians. This way, you the customer, is assured of having a man who is familiar with your appliance or TV set and can readily solve and eliminate your repair profuser.

LISTED BELOW ARE A FEW OF THE BRAND NAME APPLIANCES WE SELL AND THE AUTHORIZED FACTORY DEPOTS IN OUR AREA WHO SERVICE THEM.

Back-Hoe Running Tip-off to Tragedy

Two construction workers died yesterday in a e-in a stone's throw from one of Belleville's busiest roughfares — and their fate went unnoticed for five hours.

Victims of the tragedy with a macabre touch were 25-year-old Patrick Black, 189 Albert Street, and Dougs, Cronstight, 33, 19 Pringle Drive, both married men with young families.

They did unobserved, in the crumbling of a 10-tool sever trench limiting the Topa Motel with a city to the control of the control

Coroner Dr. J. Russell Scott said immediately afterwards there would be "a full inquiry." He said it was likely the Ontario coroner's office would send

The money you have invested in your property is excellent collateral for a Seaboard your property is excellent collateral for a Seaboard Mortagae Loan. And this means you get one of the lowest rates of interest to be found anywhere, because real estate offers such excellent security. A Seaboard Mortagae Loan has the added advantage of letting you borrow up to 80% of the value of letting you borrow up to 80% of the value of your property, as compared to approximately 66% for most conventional mortagages.

n should you take out a Seaboard Mortwhen should you rake out a seaboard morrage Loan? Only when it's to your advantage. This can be worked out between you and your Seaboard manager. You and he may find that a Seaboard Mortgage Loan can help you, as it has

- To reduce your monthly mortgage payments
- To pay off high-cost charge accounts and loans arniture, car, clothing, etc. Often articles which you think you are buying at a saving are actually costing you an unnecessarily high price because of the variety of service and
- To put your children through university or to me improve
- To help you purchase a new or older home if you are having difficulty in raising the necessary mortgage money.

To assist you in selling your home if a pros-pective buyer has difficulty in raising cash to

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

One of the more regretiable features of that bloody display given by the Totoute Maple Leafs and the Chicago Rinck Hawks last Saturday night in Toronto is that it was televised over a national television net-

Millions of Camadian and American hockey fans enjoy Hockey Night in Canada" every Saturday night regard-ss of what teams are playing.

And smong the millions are the greater part of the 185,000 tykes, squirts, powers, bastams, midgets and juveniles that form Canada's national minor hock-ey association

Also among the viewers are the fine men who devote ir time and energy to the training and coaching of these ingsters and who are trying to teach them the game should be played with emphasis on clean play and sports-

The disgraceful exhibition that took place in Tor-onto may have a far-reaching effection the efforts of these men :- and on the youngilers themselves.

For as anyone who has a son playing hockey or is with hockey-playing and hockey-minded meppet knows, each of the youngsters has his favorite team and one or more player idels in the National Hockey League ranks.

Be he Gordie Hewe, Bobby Hull, Frank Hahevilch, or any other topillight player, his every more is weighted with something adm to devotion by the young test-vision devotees from coset is coast. They not only watch but the next time set they go all set or ensuring watch have been time out they go all set or ensuring the actions of their felos. They believe swrything their National Leavas here does is perfection.

LET'S TALK TURKEY ABOUT SERVICE

FACTORY SERVICE?

Factory service means that your appliances are serviced by technicians who are experts in their respective fields whether it be refrigeration, laundry equipment, ranges, televisions, stereos, etc.

These servicemen are trained by the manufacturers after their merits have been thoroughly investigated. They must pass rigid qual-ifications to meet the high rateducts of the prand name manufac-our community. Then they must stock an ample supply of parts and our community. Then they must stock an ample supply of parts and replacement products for all conceivable repair jobs. Customer sati-faction is a hard and fast rule and any dealer risks losing his recog-nised franchies if the cannot live up to these standards.

It is the Polley of the BAD BOY NOT to have one man serving all phases of appliances and electronic repair and who is graerally known as a "izebot-all-trades". Instead BAD BOY relains the services of manufacturer's personally selected authorized service who is familiar with your appliance or TV set and can readily solve and eliminate your repair problems.

LISTED BELOW ARE A FEW OF THE BRAND NAME APPLIANCES
WE SELL AND THE AUTHORIZED FACTORY DEPOTS IN OUR

Sinatra Ages Well

Frank Sinatra ages well. He grow to meet the challenge.

There was a time when he was the bobbyers' idol-if there were bobby-soxers in those days. Most of those a little older felt much the same way about him as people of their age, a few years later, were to feel about Elvis Presley.

But Sinatra grew up. People who at first idered it an insult to call him a crooner, when they had just got around to liking the way Bing Crosby filled that bill, discovered that Sinatra could sing, after all.

Sinatra could sing, arer an.

Sinatra, though, earned criticism when he divorced his first wife. Rancy, the mother of his three children. When he married glamor-girl Ava Gardner, many predicted no good would come of it. They were right. The two soon They were right. The two soon But, contrary to what some expected, Sinatra did not roll in and out of matrim with a succession of other beauties. He con-tinued to take an interest in the welfare of his children, remained friends with his first wife, as freely rumored to be still "carrying a torch" for Ava and rushed to her side when she was

There is no doubt but that Kikuyu tribe There is no doubt but that kikuyu triesmen committed many atroclites, against white and black alike, in Kenyatta's name. But there is also no question but that, in repressing the evil Mau Mau, the white man was more often vigorous than careful. Many innocents suffered with he guilty, for no more reason than that their akins were dark and they were suspect. Ken-yatta was less innocent than many and his jail yatta was less innocent than many and his jain term was extraordinary leniency by the stand-ards of most colonial regimes. Nevertheless, how many white men, so jalled by blacks, would have emerged from behind barbed wire, as Kengomes?

This, though, does not mean that the white name has nothing to fear in Kenya. He has noth. Aiready he has been ousted from much of the rich agricultural land in the highlands, land which he tended carefully and which yielded innd which he kended carefully and which yielded nunh wath—with the help of cheap native labor. A third of the fertile "willte highlands" have been purchased from white owners and turned over to natives, many of whom lack any knowledge of modern farming methods. Author Rispelh Rusley, writing in the Lon-don Sunday Telegraph, asys "its was like watching the clock put back." Modern, efficient farms are becoming pessant-worked small holdings and the yield is sure to decline.

This may strike the white man as idlocy. This may strike the white man as idder, but the African is jumpy for inad and this is African land. Putting the clock back may be necessary, because the African is still living in the past, by the standards of the civilized world. If the African cannot be converted overnight into a twentleth-entury man, then there is no sense expecting him to live and work like one. But one would have to pat/ths-clock back a long, long way, before one reached a time when a man, black, white or yellow, did not like to be free and work his own harvest may how man reash sown hards and work his own harvest.

It is sometimes necessary to take one step backwards, in order to take two forwards. The fact that Lenin was the first to make this axiom famous does not make it any the less true. important thing is not that a backward step is being taken, but that efforts be made to assure neung teacen out that errors be made to assure that the steps which follow are in the right di-rection. TRAGEDY SCENE - Smoke rolls from win Victoria Avenue where 73-year-old Mrs. Iva. Brown lost her life in a fire on Sunday afternoon. Her body, clad in night clothes, was found by firemen lying in the hallway between two upstairs bedrooms. Firemen were hampered in entering the building by dense smoke. The dead woman lived alone in the house and was reported by neighbors as a woman who kept to herself, seldom having visitors.

What Price Keynes?

What Price Keynes?

Prime Minister Lester E. Pearson did some talthing—some double-talting—the other day, after hearing a brief from the Canadian Congress of Labors.

Prime Minister the seconomy. The Canadian Congress of Labors wants plained deficit financing to stimulate the economy. The Canadian Contamber of Commerce presented a brief a seek earlier which also touched on the same subject. It should surprise no one to learn that it took precisely the opposite view from the CLC.

Mr. Pearson, in replying to the CLC brief, yellow the contamber of the contamber o way to manage a nation's affairs.

The Chamber of Commerce, for instance, has soild grounds for objecting to continued large deficile in times like these, because most of the economic yardelcits indicate that we are enjoying a period of prosperity, a time when, acjoing a point of properity, a time when, as governments abould budgest for surjuuses, in order to restrain inflationary tendencies.

tendencies.

The Canadian Labor Congress, on the other hand, can make out a case for deficit financing, because one of the economic yardsticks, and that the one in which it is most vitally interested, fall to confirm this diagnost of propertity. Unemployment, though lower than last year, remains high and the jabor Congress cannot be blamed for waring the government to utilize blamed for waring the government to utilize the composite of the properties of the mic activity.

Events may prove that what has happened Keynes duplicated what happened earlier to Marx.

It is now commonplace to admit that Karl Marx made a very shrewd analysis of the capitalism of his day, but that later developments changed the picture entirely, so that Marxian theories became outdated about the time when somb countries started to attempt to practise them.

Like Marx, Keynes found his economic theories spurned when he first advanced them. They were not tried during the world-wide de-pression, of the thirties. Instead of spending, governments economized—until the rise of Hilter forced some of them to loosen their purse-strings to rearm and meet the Nazi threat. This exto rearm and meet the Nazi threat. This ex-penditure on armaments brought sufficient improvement in economic conditions in some countries to suggest that Keynes may have been right.

Today his theories are widely accepted. But roomy has theories are widely accepted. But we are experiencing a new problem, unemployment in the midst of prosperity. If we cannot behance our national budget in times like these, when shall we be able to do so?

Like Marx, Keynes may have his theories tested just when new conditions have made them obsolete.

What we need is new theories to fit changed facts. If the Congress of Labor is one prophet behind the times the Chamber of Commerce would appear to be pre-Keynesian in outlook.

Castro, Kennedy and the Wise

The other day the Toronto Star printed a remarkable article by a French journalist, Jean orted on interviews he had lel Castro of Cuba and Daniel, in which he re

Daniel, in which he reported on interview he had had with Premier Fidel Castro of Cubs and President J. F. Kennedy of the United States, shortly before the assachation of the inter-Highly interesting was Castro's explanation of the origin of the missale crists. "Castro and that Kennedy, in conversation with Antachel Addubel, son-laws of Kirubacher, reminded the Russian that the United States had not intervened in Hungary. Castro interpreted this to mean that the "US, planned an attack on Cubs and that Kennedy was varying against." Cuba and that Kennedy was warning against any Russian intervention. Castro persuaded Khrushchev this was the correct interpretation. Khrushchev was frightened that the U.S. would disregard normal protests and that Russia would be dragged into a war in defence of Cuba, starting a nuclear holocaust. He thought that the only chance of preserving peace was to take drastic action—to install missiles on Cuban soil. Cuba agreed to accept them. "For us Cubans," Castro told Daniel, "it did not make much dif-ference whether we died by a conventional bomb or by a hydrogen one.'

The Star. commenting editorially on Dan-iel's article, interprets this remark by Castro as revealing "the streak of irresponsibility in his makeup." Surely this criticism is unwarranted. One may question Castro's interpretation of these ome may quession classics interpretation of times events, but if one grants that he told Daniel what he believed to be the truth, then in accepting missiles, Castro did not endanger the world, but merely accepted Khrushchev's reasoning that this was the best hope of preventing war.

Indeed, this was ane uses nope or prevening war.
Indeed, the Star appears not merely to misjudge one revolutionary, Castro, but most revolutionaries. "There speaks the true revolutionary—if his revolution is to go down, the whole world might as well blow up with it," says the Star of Castro's remark that for Cubans a hortoner bound might be now to the the conhortoner bound might be no uncere the conhortoner bound might be no uncered to the conhortoner bound might be no un hydrogen bomb would be no worse than conven-tional bombs. Most true revolutionaries are pattent men; they have had to be to nurse the first flickers of revolt into a full-blown flame. They are not easily discouraged. They believe the tide of history flows with them. It is more the tide of history flows with them. It is more likely to be the reactionary who is willing to see the whole world blown up if his own little corner is blotted. To how the second of the little corner sted. He has seen much change all around him. Change in his own backyard does mean the end of his world, while to the revolutionary it means just a new beginning.

The really remarkable part of Daniel's interviews, though, was contained in two sentences uttered by Kennedy. "Limit that there is not accountly in the world." Kennedy, "I think that there is not accountly in the world." Kennedy all the regions of Africa, and tooling-color the regions of Africa, and tooling-color the economic colonisation, the humilisation, the exploitation have been worse than those which ravaged Cubs, tite result, in part of the policy-of my country during the regime of Ratitat, I think we spawned, constructed, entirely fabricated without knowing it, the Castor movement:

"Reading that passage," says-the-star, "one has an overwhelming sense of what the world has lot in Mr. Kennedy's death. It may be a long time before there is again in Washington. The really remarkable part of Daniel's inter has lost in Mr. Kennedy's death. It may be a long time before there is again in Washington a leader with such clarity of mind and such willingness to face unpleasant facts.'

This praise of the dead president is fully warranted. Yet why are we surprised by this sudden insight into the breadth of Kennedy's view? He had had ample opportunity for years to make his views plain. Why had he not done

His silence may have been due to timidity In stance may nave been due to timing, But timidity-is not necessarily deplorable. It can be another name for a resolute determination to serve well, can spring from the recognition that rashly voicing unpleasant truths would be

Plan Trips for Holidays, And Don't Re-cover Route

by Doris C. Clark, M.S.W.

DEAR DORIS — It is my own greatest ambition to travel, but it seems I am getting nowhere.

Where do I enquire about working as switchboard operator on a liner? This would be just the thing for me, as I would be working and travelling at the same time.— O FOR OPERATOR.

DEAR O — In England. The At-lantic liners are either based there or girl just about has to take up residence. Action starts the minute you turn the key in a '64 Oldsmobile. Rocket Action-the kind that's generated by one of Olds' famed Rocket V8s. The count commences at 245 hp-goes all the way up to 330 hp in the Rocket range-and hits a booming 345 in the Starfire V8. Naturally, all this go doesn't just stand around flexing its muscles. It gets together with one of Olds' great transmissions (3-Speed Synchro-Mesh, sporty 4-on-the-floor, Hydra-Matic or new Jetaway automatic) in a manner that really puts the show on the road. If you think all this could spoil your resolution not to buy a new car this year - you're right! But then, where else could you discover the kind of automotive value that Oldsmobile gives; and discover, too, that it all starts at a pleasantly reasonable figure (especially with the new lower-priced Jetstar 88s)? Why not have a heart-to-heart talk with your quality Oldsmobile dealer soon? He'll show you a host of good reasons why you should put yourself in a new Oldsmobile!

Khrushchev Strives for Plenty

A cut of 4.3 per cent in the Soviet military get may not be a world shaking development, but it is at least a move in the right direction. It seems to confirm the judgment of those who sider that Premier Khrushchev is anxious to lift from his people a portion of the present heavy burden of armaments, so he can improve their living conditions.

Of much greater significance is the increase of 53 per cent in investments for the USSR consumer goods industries. This must certainly be at least partly at the expense of further development of heavy industry.

Yet it would probably be in error to regard this as a complete about-face in Soviet policy. From the earliest years of the Bolshevik revolution, development of heavy industry has been stressed, but always with the explanation that it was a necessary prelude to eventual expansion of the supply of consumer goods. This explanation was advanced so often, that it is probable the Russian people themselves have long since ceased to pay it much attention. Nevertheless, it was sound economics and there was bound to come a time when the expansion of heavy industry would make the production of more consumer goods not merely possible but inevitable. One cannot continue indefinitely to manufacture tools to make tools, which is what heavy industry, in large measure, does.

It may easily be that Khrushchev has switched the emphasis to the production of consumer goods earlier than might have been expected, having regard to the Communist Partys past record. Even under a Stalinist, though, this change would have come eventually—indeed this change would have come eventually—indeed would probably have occurred before this had not the German invasion destroyed much of the productive capacity paintfully built up during the earlier years of the regime.

In any event the change in policy will not be welcomed by the Russian people but also be a supported by the Russian people but the production of the produ

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

The Bard of Stratford (I don't mean that platinum-pated patriarch of the Oniario hamlet), one William Shakespeare was, an all disty syrs, quite a sportsymbol and propneticator of his day. When he used to go Aven-calling on the local into he shared his time gazing at a beaker of Stratford-broad soft and his fravettle

There is a prediction of the forthcoming Clay-Liston teles-side in Julius Cestar, Act 1, Scene II, in which William notes a conversation between Kid Julius and his manager "We Wun Robbed" Anlony.

Says Caesar Liston: "Let me have men about me that are fat. Sleck-headed men, and such as sleep o' nights. You Cassius has a lean and hungry look. He thinks too much; such men are dangerous."

Antony: "Fear him not, Caes, old kid, he's not dan-gerous. He's doing noble roamin' all over the country and well disposed to spouting."

Sald Caesar (with paraphrasea): "Would be were faiter—but I fear him not. Yet if my name were liable to fear, I do not know the man I should avoid so soon as that spare Cassins . . . He loves to play and likes music. But at times of fight he hears no music. Seldom he miles and is such a sort as if he mecked himself."

"He is a great observer and looks quite through the deeds of men... (He'll be down in four.)

... Such men as he be never at heart's ease whiles behold a greater than themselves. And therefore are dangerous. I rather tell these what is to be feared what I fear."

Shakespeare intimates that Liston will carry sins until the fourth round. He writes in the s scene, same act.

Brutus:- That Caesar looks sad. What chanced?"

Carca:—"Why there was a crown offered him and put it by with the back of his hand and then the opic fell shouting . . The crown was effered kin rice and he put it by thrice, each time greatler than o other and at every putting by, mine henset meigh-or-shouted."

Had it been contended that the West could match communist strength in a conventional war, there might have been opposition to the U.S. build-up of nuclear weapons, at a time when the U.S. had a monopoly of such weapons.

This might have meant that the world would have escaped the perilous nuclear stalemate which now exists.

The change in heart and outlook on the part of U.S. experts comes much too late to do us any good-and may add to the danger.

any good—and may add to the danger.

There will be some who will argue that, justbecause the West could match the Reds in a conventional war, the use of nuclear weapons might be avoided. This, we suggest, is nonsense.
In bruth wars suttons fight with limited armaments for a limited objective. But in any war

The Suprema-Court ruling upset a decision of the Ontario Court of Appeal, which had set aside the Act as being beyond the jurisdiction of Ontario Legislature,

We have a sneaking suspicion that the On-tario Court of Appeal ruling would seem to many lawyers to be on firmer legal ground than that of the Supreme Court. Constitutionally, con-trol of interest rates is the business of the federal government.—The Supreme Court justices, though, were able to convince themselves that the question of interest was only incidental to the type of transaction covered by the Ontario law and they were thus able to rule that the act was intra vires.

The Ontario Government had appealed the The Ontario Government had appealed the Ontario court ruling and had been supported in its appeal by Quebec. The Federal Government had opposed the appeal. While one can sympathize with the desire of Federal authorities to protect their jurisdiction over interest rates, to protect their jurisaicition over interest races, it strikes us that if the members at Ottawa had been "on the ball" there would be a federal law covering this matter which would make the Ontario Act superfluous.

Small Male Courtesies Not To Be Taken for Granted

by Doris C. Clark, M.S.W.

DEAR DORIS — Could you tell me if a girl is to say you when a boy opens a car door or any other door for he FIRST DATE.

DEAR DATE — Yes. Boys are people and their small courtesies should not be taken for granted. * * *

DEAR DORIS — My sister - in - law is runken man - chaser. She's left her chil-n and husband for lurid affairs and all marriage consellors have told us she topeless. Her children have felt her abus-and seen her crawling on all fours at o'clock in the morning.

The ocicie in the morning.

After court action she was moved only to interesting the months of the morning and the morning and the morning around.

After court action she was moved only to interesting the months around.

We have now received a letter from this man saking an interest and compliment the because she has returned, like child for a good deed, we feel he is once morn under her spead only trouble can arise for himself and those poor disillusion of children. We feel we cannot pretend to have any love fo her. — HEARTSIGH.

DEAR HEARTSICK — If her husband has decided to try again, you have no choice but to support him in this. Your man-chaser may be ready now to count the cost. Even skilled counsellors grant that seemingly lost souls can change.

CONFIDENTIAL TO TIRED AND DISGUSTED TAXI
DRIVER — If you and other taxi drivers feel the same way about this, why don't you form an association? Then you could make representations to a government labor board.

(Doris knows Canadian resources and can help. Write to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a live-cent-stamped, self-addressed envelope for a private

LET'S TALK TURKEY ABOUT SERVICE

WHAT IS

FACTORY SERVICE?

Factory service means that your appliences are serviced by technicians who are experts in their respective fields whether it be refrigeration, laundry equipment, ranges, televisions, stereos, etc.

These servicemen are trained by the manufacturers after their ments have been thoroughly investigated. They must pass rigid qualification that the service of the service o

It is the Policy of the BAD BOY NOT to have one man servicing all phases of appliances and electronic repair and who is generally known as "Jack-of-all-trade". You Bet Your Life

Five cows were electrocuted last week, near Carrying Place, as they stood in stanchions in the owner's barn. The 120-voit joit that killed the cows, homeowners will be glad to hear, is the same size as the joit they risk when they play with the wiring in their homes.

Not all amateur wiring jobs wind up with electrocutions, though. Some of them cause fires, instead. And some, of course, work properly. The last variety are the dangerous one or two common-sense precautions.

But the people who are inclined to acty one or two common sense precautions are usually themen who will askip all common-sense precautions. They will accept one-in-s-thousand odds on a tragedy and be surprised, when they have several hundred such bets with fale, that fale wins one of them. Often, it's too late to cancel the other bets when one has been lock.

A few dollars spent on an electrical inspec-tion would have saved the life of those five near Carrying Place.

cows near Carrying Place.

But let's not get sentimental about five cows.

A few dollars each spent on automobile safety belts would have saved thousands of human lives in the years since they've been recommend-ed. Fire extinguishers selling at a few dollars apiece, (a bucket of water would have done the job in many cases), would have saved thousands more lives. Thousands of people have bet their lives against the expense, and lost. Thousands of others think they have won, when the truth is only that they haven't lost yet.

is only that they haven't lost yet.

There's no 'space here to go into all the gambles to which people are prone, but the season dictates a comment on at least one gamble. There are thousands of Christmas trees—potential bombs every one of them —in Quinte area homes right now. Many of these trees are carrying strings of colored lights which trees are carrying strings of colored lights which should have been retired years ago. Other strings of lights, on trees and outside the homes, are overloading electrical circuits. Few of the trees themselves have been fireproofed, and it's a safe bet that in not one house in ten is tis a sate bet that in hot one nouse in ten is there a fire extinguisher, for even a buckt of water), in the same room with the tree. Any day now this newspaper will have one or more reports of a Christmas tree bursting into flames, and of people being burned to death. The reports may or may not come from the

But most homes in Canada at this time of year are displaying a potential tragedy, each one a one-in-a-thousand gamble with fate.

An Excellent Suggestion

Auguste Choquette, the Liberal member for the Quebec riding of Lotbiniere, wants more immigrants from France.

And they drew a generous assist from Mother Na-ture, who obligingly blanketed the club terrain with a covering of snow.

Mr. Templeman said this morning that the fa-cilities of the resort will be available to the public every day during the Christmas holidays. This is to give students the chance to enjoy themselves on the

The regular season, however, will see the resort open on Saturdays and Sundays, Wednesday afternoon and Tuesday and Friday nights.

"The condition of the runs, generally, is ex-cellent," Mr. Templeman said. "We have lots of anow and otherwise everything is ready. We are looking forward to an auspicious opening day."

The tow will be in operation. The resort man-ement has obtained complete approval after in-ction by the Department of Labor.

The panoramic beauty of the resort is an attraction r lovers of winter scenics at its best. Non-skiers will well rewarded. The snow-mantled slopes; the icy auty of the Bay of Quinte stretching into the distance a "must" for viewers and cameras.

The sit "runs" extend a challenge to shiers of all abilities. The "Dare-levil" at the eastern end of the resort is for those of experience. The "Express Way" offers a distinct "dare." The "Athurg Twist" as its name belies, is a stiff test for those who alm

Looks Like a White Christmas It looks as if we are assured of a White

There will be few complaints.

Here in Canada, and throughout much of the land to the south of us, snow and Christmas seem to go together as naturally as turkey and cranberry sauce. The same is true of much of Europe. A White Christmas has many obvious advantages. It provides the best setting for visions of Santa, his reinders and his sleigh. He does not look so out of place when he is pletured on his annual Christmas Eve rounds. Show and Christmas trees go well together, especially when the trees are decked with many-colored lights.

colored lights.

But, besides appearance, snow brings an additional benefit to a Canadian Christmas. If provides the recipients of girts suitable to the season to test them immediately. No need to wait anxiously for the Weatherman to provide the proper conditions for trying out that new sleigh, or skates, or skizs.

wint, or sastes, or SRIS.

Winter sports on the whole demand more pensive equipment than that required for any summer pastimes. If it were not for nristmas, would there be an adequate supply of boggans and windbreakers and mitte knitted thoughness that without exact so the world of the world of the world where the regions of the world where the appropriate gift for Christmas is a bathing suit, or a bottle of sun-ha botton. But a little study of the globe will reveal that there are comparatively few inhabited lands where enow fails six months after last Christmas and six months before the next one. Geographically speaking, there may be no good reason why snow should be considered Christmassy; from the standpoint of people, though, it is a different matter. The big land masses of the different matter. The big land masses of the world of the standpoint of people, though, it is a different matter. The big land masses of the Man. Winter annually examiling into the picture officially just a few days before Santa makes his rounds. Even those lands where snow for Christmas is unusual consider if sitting makes his rounds. Even those lands where snow for Christmas is unusual consider it fitting and proper that Santa, or Father Christmas or Pere Noel should be pictured brushing snow-flakes off his bright red suit. Snow for Christmas suits almost everybody.

Show for Christmas suits almost everybooy. It is only the day after Christmas that a goodly portion of the people start glancing at the calendar to ascertain how much longer they are going to have to put up with the blinking stuff.

Room for Improvement

This week Rodger C. Greig has praised the interesting spaces in our downtown area and Mayor A. M. Haig has announced that the railway tracks on Pinnacle Street will definitely be oved next year.

connection between these two an-nents may not be self-evident. But there is one.

Mr. Greig, in his letter published on this page the other day mentioned some of Belleville's existing assets. It is obvious he knows ville's existing assets. It is obvious he knows much more about architecture, and the way in which it can be utilised to enhance the appear-ance of an area, than we do. We like the sense of much that he says, without being qualified to say whether all his judgments are wrong, we think he has the right apprench. There are some things about our city's business section which are fine, and they should be preserved, emphasized and utilized.

emphasized and utilized. The removal of the railway tracks from Pinnacle Street will provide us with the opportunity to Improve the area. The street, which aiready shows the result of the growth of the community and possesses several smart new buildings, as well as some fine old ones, will provide adequate room for expansion of the business district.

THERE'S STILL TIME

You can save on your 1963 Income Tax while you save money for retirement!

Any Mutual Life insurance policy, except term, may qualify for registration under the Income Tax Act. Subject to certain limits in the Act, the savings portion of the premium can then be deducted from your taxable income each year.

Several thousand Mutual Life policyholders, including engine doctors, accountants, lawyers, dentists, and the owners of small busine firms, have already registered Mutual Life policies under the Act. If you are self-employed, you will find this arrangement particularly attractive in planning for your retirement income. If you are now contributing to your employer's pension plan you may qualify for further tax relief.

You have until February 29, 1964, to register a policy and claim this deduction on your 1968 income tax return.

Either a new policy, or a Mutual Life policy you already own, may be registered. Your representative will be pleased to discuss this service with you. Call him today, or mail the coupon below for further informations

Sport Slices ...

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

Major league baseball, like its sports counterpart, the tional Hockey League, has had its big brawl moments en players dropped everything but their fists and started coeral slugging match.

Some years ago a game between the Phillies and the Senators turned late a free-for-all fight-one of the wildest buttles ever seen on an American League diamond. At that time there was much in the way of Ill reeting between the two clubs and the gang fight started after a player had been splited at the plate.

This slugging clambake however, had a spot of hus

Almost creent it that,
Almost creentydody in uniform was in there ewing, lag but there was at least one player who didn't choose to get late the exerps. He was Big Joe Kraksakos, a Washington pitcher. Big Joe was famous for his witness as a pitcher but in without directions he was exelt other, he stayed on the outer edge of the battlefield.

He was, so to speak, at peace with the world and minding his own bosiness when a Philadelphia man broke out of the brawing crowd, rushed up to him, clouted him on the jaw and then plunged back into the main event.

Big Joe was hurt, not so much from the cleut as on the conduct of his assailant. "I wasn't hitting any-dy," he complained later. "What did he want to no up and sing me for?"

His question was answered when someone man who had hit Joe and asked for his res es man who had nit Joe and akked for his reason.

"I was in there," said the Philadelphia player,
"Surging away at whoever was handy, and I happened to to look up and there was liky joe standing of it to one side. I happened to think about his wild pitching, and how a couple of times he his time in the rho with his said how a couple of times he his time in the rho with his time."

"I was a surging to the said of the said.

"I was a surging to the said of the said of the said of the said of the said."

And there has been no equal of that wild and selly St. Louis Cardinals Gashouse Gang of the mid-trities. When the uncivilized mob storaged into a Na-nau League city, strong men qualled and women and lidren hid in the cellists.

On one occasion when the Gassers went to Philadelphicity sportswriter wrote:

"For three days this well-policed city has been wied by a pack of unbarbered gurillas, who looked though they had just tunnelled their way out of the mill at Jollet Prison.

The chipmunks nested in their beards. They were rerails hate the main feed salon of one of the city's side inns. They preyed upon street earnivals sucked and pillaged the midways. They frightener affice cope with their hideounness, and made most salite reach for the ceiling.

"They meant no harm. It was only the Dean brothers and the unspeakable Gashouse Gang trying to hex the Giants out of their winning streak.

"The whole thing could have been hushed up. The cope had been fixed, the dog catchers had orders to stand by but to do nothing unless Pepper Martin and Durocher started to snap and bark.

"But last night the Jesser evil, Brother Paul Dean, declared binnelf as a public enemy and stamped this a carnival lot, smashing milk bottles with nickel rockets. The scandal broke."

During that visitation the Gashousers spent one af-fermoon walloping the Phillies 11-6. That evening three new walked into the dining room of one of Philly's swallers totels. They were dirty overalls and greasy caps and carried hammers.

They wandered unmolested around the posh room pounding on radiators with their hammers and nobody appeared to recognize them as Pepper Martin, Dizzie Dean and Helale Schuble.

From the dining room they proceeded to the grand ballroom where a Boys' Club of America convention was under vay. In the middle of the convention floor they fathed a quartel and then a free-swinging flight which ended in Dixty knocking Repps? Martin to the carpet.

The kids were sharper than the people in the dining room and soon caught on. They compelled the invaders to get up and make some little speeches.

Need More Sinners

What this country needs is more sinners-or a vastly expanded set of sins. It seems the only way to raise the next generation properly without facing bankruptcy. Unfortunately Premier John Robarts of Ontario does not seem to understand the ob-

The other day the Ontario Association of Mayors and Reeves asked him to have the Province assume 90 per cent of the costs of education

Mr. Robarts refused. He said the province

Mr. Robaris refused. He said the province did not have the money. The president of the Association soon explained how the required money could be obtained. The tax on eigarettes could be increased. The Association also wanted more provincial assistance in paying welfare costs and the was suggested.

Mayor Angus Campbell of Pembroke, the president of the Association puffing on a cigarette, explained the way that the mayors and reeves look at this problem.

"If someone wants to enjoy the pleasures smoking, he should be prepared to pay for it." he declared.

Nobody seems to see anything wrong about heavy taxes on people who enjoy the es of smoking, the pleasures of betting, pleasures of smoking, the pleasures of the pleasures of drinking and the like.

The reason is not difficult to root out, although those who advocate increased taxes of this kind may not be consciously aware of what prompts them to regard such increased large as what had been as what the such as the su levies as right and proper.

All these pleasures are regarded by some ple as slightly sinful.

Nobody can be censured for taxing sin.

What we need in order to be able to raise adequate revenues for our many needs is a mighty increase in the number of sinners.

If it were a sin to fish, or hunt, to curl one's If it were a sin to fish, or hunt, to curt one's hat or paint one's lips, to sun tash, to garden to travel by automobile except on business, to read, to play a port or to watch one, to amuse onesit by TV or radio—in short to do anything which enhanced one's feelings of well-being or self-esteem—there would be no end to the products and the services upon which governments could lary heavier taxes without fear of criticism by the right plays and the major criticism by the right plays and the major criticism by the right plays and the major criticism. the righteous and the public spirited.

The wages of sin would then be a nation where the young were well educated, the needy succored, the aged secure. The righteous na-tion would wallow in ignorance, poverty and transmitter. urity.

There seems to be something wrong with this picture, some place, but, if Mayor Campbell this picture, some place, but if Mayor Campbell pointed us in the right direction when he profered a tax on the pleasure of smoking as the way to meet our responsibilities for educating Although the content of the content our young, we cannot detect exactly where we strayed from the straight and narrow path of logic in reaching our conclusion.

The stump of his pipe he held tight in his teeth, And the smoke, it encircled his head like a wreath. He had a broad face and a little round belly, That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elt, And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself. A wink of his eye, and a twist of his head, Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

. He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work, And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk And laying his finger aside of his nose, And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose.

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle, And away they all flew like the down on a thittle. But I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight, "Happy Christmas to all and to all a good night."

The Christmas Presence

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsel The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of

To a Christian the story of Christmas begins with the birth of a baby, born in a stable in Bethlehem of Judea, and reaches its climax with the taking of that life some thirty years later by crucifizion, the death and resurred of Easter with its glorious promise of eternal life.

Many customs and traditions have grown up around ration of Christmas, but basic to them is a babe, a symbol of lare.

And that is what Christmas is, an outpouring of love, ne of giving, of goodwill to others. There are few who are not moved with the spirit of giving at Christmas time. Even to a misanthrope like Scrooge, the message of Christmas rang loud and clear, and behind it all is the great gift to mankind, the Babe of Bethlehem.

What moves people to spend their evenings at the Kiwanis Centre repairing and painting toys to give away? Or why do the members of the Belleville Fire Department collect and distribute toys? Or the Salvation Army care for the needy, or the many churches have white gift Sundays? It is the expression of human love within the infinite love of Divine love. It is done without hope of reward, without expectation of something in return. It is one time when people are truly selfless, when others are more important than one's self.

Christmas means many things to many people with ever-widening means of expression, but looking down through twenty centuries this wide avenue narrows and rows until it comes into focus, and at the focal point is a baby - the Christ.

The Wall of Love

Today there is joy along the most hated wall

The barrier which divides West Berlin from East Berlin is the assembly point for thousand who are realizing one of their fondest dreams.

Cruel separations are being ended, for a day.
Berliners are celebrating Christmas in a style which would have seemed impossible in What made this possible? Miraculously, it will seem to many, it was the Christmas spirit spilling over into communist territory.

This, though, is an over-simplification.

It ignores one of the world's most significant that the spirit of Christmas is not limited to Christendom but is the birthright of all McIlraith of Transport writes

It's one continuous yell!

It is a birthright which is more often scorr ed than cherished.) This, though, is as true in F Christian lands as in those where other faiths.

Christian lands as in those where other raths, or the lack of any faith, hold sway.

Men in all climes pay lip-service to the brotherhood of man, but most of the time they spend fighting like brothers.

Or they persist in limiting this brotherhood to their own kind. Anybody who believes that communism is a harsh creed without a heart may be surprised to hear that the traits which I always liked External's post,
'Oom Paul tells old Saint Nick.

But show me, Nick, just how I communists cherish include many of what we regard as the Christian virtues—courage, comregard as the Christian virtues—courage, com-passion, loyalty, perseverance, self-sacrifice. Those who doubt this are referred to almost any of the Russian novels about the Second Great

But these are gifts reserved by the commun-ists for other communists. Much of the time, in much of the world, there is a similar excluaiveness. The white man is friendly to other men, providing they are white, speak his lan-guage, are of his religion and owe allegiance to guage, are of his religion and owe alleganics of his country. Similar exclusiveness is shown by black, yellow and red men, by Catholics and Pro-testants, Englishmen and Germans and Arabs long; And add to that not smoking

Cuban Women Queue for Yule Food

By DANIEL HARKER
HAVANA (AP) — The worden stand in a long line outside a big Havana store, patiently waiting for their extra quots of food for Christmas. Silently they read a huge-sign drappd from a nearby roottop.

"Joy, galety and warmth in our Cuban and socialist Christmas." By DANIEL HARKER

Food is short, but the Com-munist government is trying to make things a bit easier this year than last Under strict ra-tioning, there is supposed to be one pound of pork and two ounces of tomatoes per person.

REALINGS FOT CHRISTINGS

"Let us so even unto Bethlehem."

So spoke the shepherds, one to another as they went to seek and find the Holy Child of whom the angels sans. This Christmas, let us return in heart and spirit to Bethlehem and the sacred manier. Let the miracle of His birth and the joy of His message ever be our blessing and ineptantion.

As the radiance of that Holy Night shines across the years and the world rejoices, our thoughts turn to His words, urging all to brotherhood, and we feel it is especially fitting at this Christmastide to express anew our cordial sreetings and good wishes to our many valued friends. May your Christmas be a wonderful one.

If It's an Art

In the year of our Lord 1963, when U.S. universities are teaching courses in love, marriage and in water skiing, and when Canadian schools run courses in building maintenance for would-be janitors, Michele Bastin of Montreal is out of Refreshingly out of place, one might Michele is an artist, and a good one if the Michele is an artist, and a good one it sure list of her clients and of the shows she has pre-sented and been represented in is any indication. She is unusual because Michele has never been to an art school, and she does not want to "Painting is like eating and drinking," ahe says.

"I was nearly born doing it."

If this sort of attitude becomes widespread. it will be hard on the courses in love and going abroad to see the people and the countries, not to spend her time in a classroom learning a mechanical trade.

This not a wholesale damnation of schools in general or of art schools in particular. Schools of any sort have their place in modern society, and the world could not get along without them. An art school can do a wonderful job of turning a gag-writer into a cartoonist or a draftsman into a commercial artist. In a non-professional field, art schools are a quick and easy way for the would-be hobbyist to pick up enough skill maintain interest.

But schools will never produce masters. The real master of an art or a skill practises that art real master of an art of a skin practices that art because it is in his or her blood, and he or she will keep working, and producing good results. regardless of his or her training. For the artist of Michele's apparant calibre, schools have nothing to teach that she cannot pick up in a purer form from the market places of the world

In the same manner, one might suggest that such arts as building maintainence, water skiing and even love and marriage can be learned "in the field," by any potential master.

Confusion Central

Best news of the century for culture-hawks and non-artists concerns plans for a roving in-ternational arts festival to tour Canada during the centennial year. A feasibility study for the festival will start during 1964.

Maurice Lamontagne, president of the Privy uncil and chairman of a two-day National Council and chairman of a woway reasonate Centennial conference in Ottawa recently, said that 15 or 20 countries would be invited to send "the best they have to offer" in the way of theatrical, symphonic, bailet or other performing groups, to tour Canada coast to coast.

This means we can all get cultured. Dur-ing 196% Canada will be full of touring groups, bringing the culture of other nations to our doorsteps, 'so we can all absorb it all at once Come 1988, the "furriners" can all go home, and Canadians will settle back to being the same-uncultured, provincial people they have always

More practical one suggests, are the projects planned to build and support permanent centres, where Canada's own culture (if any), can be developed. There is room in the country for foreign culture too, and only a fool would suggest that Canadians would not benefit from the best-or the worst for that matter—that other the country of the c where Canada's own culture (if any), can be

Well we can't scoff. We have plastic made to look like marble, plastic made to look like marble, plastic made to look like wood, paper made to look like leather, chemicals made in look like fur, and some sort of waxy stuff made to look like fruit and stuff made to po-flowers.

Still thoughts of other, opu-lent days make pleasant a gra-creams and it is disappointing to know there was fake marble behind Herod when he lounged on silken custions and had his on silken custions and had his behind Herod when ne jounged on silken cushions and had his minious peel him pomegranates. The next discovery, no doubt, will be that the dancing Salome was only a thinly-relied libration.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

The biggest thing on the television abwave weekend will be the much-talked about best on the New York Giants and the Chicage Box National Football League championship.

There is an air of confidence not approaching cocki-ness in both camps and the experts south of the border predict it will be a battle of defences with the Bears kee-ing all eyes cocked on the accurate arm of one Y. A.

The rival coaches, Al Sherman of the Giznis and "Daddy" George Halas of the Bears have warned their respective clubs not to sell each other short.

Sherman told his New Yorkers yesterday to forget their dirtical superiority and "think about people," particu-ly those garbed in the habiliments of the Bears.

"You can't go by statistics," he said. "You have look at the people you're playing, and we know they e going to be tough." The Bears, working out on frozen Wrigley Field over holiday were warned by Halas that they must come up h their best performance on Sunday against the Giants they want to grab the league confalon.

He said he believed the field would be good for game barring snow or deep freeze tomorrow or Sun-y morning. Hot air blowers were installed under-th the tarpaulins covering the field to dry and thaw

WHAT, DO IT NOW? - The National Employment Service's theme is "Do It Now." In an attempt to promote this winter works campaign, the Junior Chamber of Commerce offered assistance and on Saturday a number of the Junior Chamber members visited stores and other places of business, placing posters advertising, "Do It Now." Above is seen Committee Chairman Bill Yeotes, left, tacking one of these posters to a pole on Church Street at the rear of the Federal building, while President of District 6, Zeke Kvarda, holds it into position.

The British would be able to sit backward and indulge in an "I told you so" attitude, were it not for the fact that the grudging reluctance which seems to accompany most abdications has led them to seek, and obtain, the right to keep troops on the island.

These troops are now trying to keep the peace, in a situation in which the right to rule does not rest with them, and in which they have the somewhat questionable privilege of working with Greek and Turkish troops as partners in a light returned.

The tottering "Old Man 1963" may have been dubbee as "That Was the Year That Was" but the old boy will depart the scene in one of the greatest blazes of en tertainment ever seen and heard in the city.

A survey of New Year's Eve and New Year's Day netions reveals that residents intend letting down rir collective celebrative hair in a shower of parties, aces, dinners and general whoopee.

A number of organizations, associations, clubs and other collective units plan gala celebrations. Perhaps with an idea of staying away frome-bottles and throttles many residents have planned house and apartment parties.

Highlighting the social events are the dinner dunces scheduled by the officers of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, the Hotel Quinte, the Bay of Quinte Yacht Clab, the Belleville Clab and other

And the non-deductable prices are in keeping with the rich quality of the planned high Jinks. The tabs ranged from $25 to $8 per couple with some parties charg-ing per capita rates.

The armed services of the city and district have planned a number of outstanding get-togethers. The Hasty Pees officers, those of the RGAF Trenton and the Canadian Guards at Picton-will dine and dance torow night.

The Hasty Pees sergeants' mess have a dinner-dance arranged as have the senior NCO's of the Guards and Post New Year's Eve antics will see receptions d in most of the messes. The Hasty Pees' officers d hold theirs New Year's morning starting at 9.30. Also Wednesday morning in Picton the officers of the Canadian Guards will be "at home to their senior NCO's. It is understood Trenton RCAF officers are also holding a reception Intermess camaraderie has been arranged and many cers and sergeants will be the guests of other messes well as hosts in their own.

On the "civilian" side of the whoopee picture, the Belleville Shrine Club will hold a dance and buffet for some 75 couples.

As an innovation the Hasty Pees officers' party charging a flat rate of $15.00 per couple. This includes

The Club Cedars and Club Canara anticipate large crowds at their New Year's functions while the Masonic lodge will also hold forth at the Temple.

The Belleville Club is offering a dance buffet lie the Yacht Club officials will be hosts at a

As was mentioned many people will visit or enter friends at cosy home functions. "Most city restaurs will serve special dinners on New Year's Day.

The Belle Theatre will hold forth at a midnight sho and will observe the entrance of the New Year with some style of celebration.

Menntine on the other side of the picture the limbs of the law will keep a close eye on traffic. Those who combine the bottle with the throttle will get short about.

New Year's

One of man's most cherished illusions is that it is possible for him to make a new beginning.

In his rational moments, he knows that this in his rational moments, he knows that this in and he immediatein nis rational moments, ne knows that this is not so. His sages tell him, and he immediate-ly senses that they are right, that a man is part of everything he has known, and everything he has known is part of him. New beginnings, therefore, are an illusion.

But even illusions have their uses. Striving for the great and impossible often makes it easier to achieve the lesser and the feasible. No man can start his journey anew, but he can alter the route he is travelling.

Generally this change in direction is only achieved by degrees, by leaning stubbornly in the desired direction, so that one's course is changed in a sweeping curve, as a car takes a corner, as the skier curves his run.

But there are occasions when a man of iron will finds it possible to jump sidewise like a jackrabbit, twist himself in mid-air and land running in the opposite direction to that in which running in the opposite direction to that in which he was going a moment before. The great trick in accomplishing this feat is to bring oneself to make the effort. It is a matter of timing. Every muscle must be tensed, ready to go into what at weather the many and many and the state of the play at precisely the same moment.

As a marker for such a sudden leap. New As a marker for such a sudden leap, New Year's Day will serve all as well as any—and will serve many better than most, because it is a marker irrevocably fixed, which he cannot ignore at the last moment without being aware

So New Year's resolutions are not to be So New Year's resolutions are not to be automatically spurned as spurious attempts to salve a guilty conscience. They can be utilized for a good end.

To be useful, though, these resolutions abould be properly planned. They should not be a list of desires unaccompanied by a willingness to work for the rewards of change. They should not be preceded by a last fundament in all those habits which we have decided to abandon.

The man who looks for new beginnings at New Year's is a fool doomed to disappointment. But he is a poor man indeed, or a much better one, than most, who does not desire that his one man host, who does not desire that the record in the year ahead should show improve-ment in some way, over his achievements in the past year, and who is not willing to make an past year, and who is not willing to n effort to earn that for which he yearns.

Horse Sense

The Ontario government "chooses to turn a bird oge to the used car market," according to provincial NDP leader Danaid C. MacDonaid. The government might as well turn a blind eye, one syggests, as a single good one. It would require a thousand good eyes to police the bustonice.

Mr. MacDonald says that the government Mr. MacDonald says that the government should investigate the dishonest practices in the used car industry. And the used car dealer has at least one definite advantage over the horse trader. Ir-regular noises in a horse can't be silenced by a bucket of sawdust mixed with overweight oil.

But there were honest horse traders, and there are honest used car dealers. And some common sense helps to tell them apart. The man with a permanent business cannot afford to leave town.

With all the opportunities the dealer has to hook the customer, there is only one reasonably safe way to go looking for a used car. The wise buyer will take a closer look at the dealer he wishes to buy from than at the car he wishes

Bigotry has no head and cannot think, no art and cannot feel. When she moves it is in wrath; when she pauses it is mid ruin. Her prayers are curses, fier god is a demon, her communion is death, her vengeance is eternity, her decalogue is written in the blood of her victims, and if she stops for a moment in her internal flight it is upon a kindred rock to whet her vulture force for a moment of the community of th vulture fang for a more sanguinary desolation

Superstitions are what other people pos-sess; oneself only has beliefs.—Peter Opie, pre-sident of the British Folk-lore Society.
